DBRS Releases Commentary on U.S. Credit Card ABS

Industry: Sec.--Credit Card & Consumer Lending

DBRS has today released a commentary, "How U.S. Credit Card ABS Can Withstand Today's Credit Challenges," that summarizes the key strengths that will let this asset class sustain positive performance.

The commentary focuses on four key strengths of the sector: generally strong sponsors/servicers, favorable fundamental characteristics of the asset class, relatively favorable performance in the asset class to date and robust protections within transaction structures.
